RE: Peralte v the City of New York

07 cv 06148

Dear Judge Holwell::

I represent the plaintiff in this action. I am writing to apologize to the Court and opposing counsel for missing a deadline to file opposition papers to the City's motion to dismiss this action. I mistakenly had my deadline recorded as July 13, 2008; I see now that it was actually one month earlier. I cannot assign any blame to this to anyone but myself. My only excuse is that on June 11, then from June 16- 20, with more proceedings on June 27, 2007 I was actually engaged on trial before the Hon. Shira Scheindlin in the matter of Annunziata v the City of New York. For most of the preceding month before that trial I was, as a sole practitioner, engaged in the preparation of that case.

I respectfully and with apologies to all concerned request until July 18, 2008 to file opposition papers in this action.

I thank the Court for its attention & consideration
